Raider Report

TONIGHT'S CONTEST

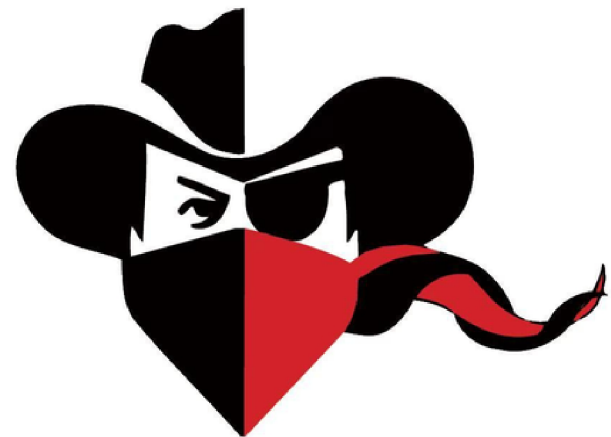

Racine hosts the Tennessee Hornets tonight, as the first matchup ever between these organizations. The Hornets come out of the Elite American Football League, which is a Spring league with teams in FL, GA, TN, and AL. The Hornets completed their season with a 5-5 record, finishing in 10th place in a 29 team AAA North division. They qualified for the playoffs but lost in the first round to the 2023 runner-up Georgia Cobras.

This summer the Hornets are playing a Top 25 national schedule, with this game being the first. Future contests are scheduled thru the Summer and Fall, including games against the Indy Bison (June 29th), New Jersey Sharks (July 29th), and the Florida Warriors (October 12th).

Eight players have signed contracts for 2025 with the IFL Alabama Beavers franchise.

The Raiders are pleased to have Ms. Gina Degregorio with us tonight to perform the national anthem!

Raiders Win a Long, Hard-Fought Battle Over the Motor City Rams

by Jack Redlin, Racine Raiders

The Racine Raiders (3-0) got off to a hot start on Saturday night scoring four touchdowns while shutting out the Motor City Rams (5-1) in the first half. The Raiders would win 27-14 at Historic Horlick Athletic Field.

While the offense started off hot, they were inconsistent again, due in part to starting quarterback Andre Locke only playing two drives on the night. The Raiders offense was able to put up 300 total yards but were unable to score in the second half for the second straight week. Additionally, penalties were a large part of this game with the Raiders totaling 14 penalties for 136 yards. The Raiders defense was once again dominate in the first half, holding the Rams to negative yards in the first quarter and less than 40 yards of offense in the first half.

The Raiders first score was an amazing 40-yard pass play from Schick Sawyer to wide receiver Joe Garcia III where he caught the touchdown off two deflections with 2:04 remaining in the first quarter. Brady Wodack came on for the extra point and connected in order to make it 7-0. The Raiders added to their lead early in the second quarter when they started going to the ground-and-pound game in the redzone, leading to a ten-yard touchdown run by Tom Benko. Wodack again came in and made the extra point putting the Raiders up 14-0 with 14:55 remaining in the second quarter.

Sticking with the run game, the Raiders once again found the endzone on a bulldozing run by Rashawn Herron where he broke multiple tackles and powered his way into the endzone putting the Raiders up 20-0 with 6:23 remaining in the second quarter. The final Raiders score of the game came from Garcia gain where Andre Locke was able to find him over the top of the defense while stepping up away from pressure for a 37-yard touchdown pass. Wodack came in to redeem himself and made the game 27-0 with two minutes remaining in the second quarter.

The Rams defense stepped up in the second half, but a large part of the Raiders struggles in the second half came from penalties. In a game where there was over 300 penalty yards on both sides, neither team was able to fully gain momentum to go on a run in the second half. While the Rams had a slight momentum push at the end of the game, it was proven to be too little, too late leading to a Raiders victory, 27-14.

Raiders Win... (con't)

Schick completed 4-of-16 passes for 60 yards with one interception to go with his one passing touchdown. Locke completed 2-of-2 attempts for 36 yards with one touchdown in his minimal playing time.

Garcia once again led all receivers with 76 yards receiving while adding two scores. Rico Floes also hauled in a catch for 26 yards and Benko hauled in a reception for six yards. Benko led the team in rushing gaining 49 yards on 7 attempts while also adding a rushing touchdown. Herron totaled 42 yards on 4 carries while also adding a rushing touchdown.

Linebacker Aarion Ivy led the way defensively with 12 total tackles. Defensive lineman Niko Lemke totaled three tackles and one forced fumble. Defensive back Corey Dalton led the secondary totaling six tackles and one interception.

Player Profile:

Corey Dalton (DB)

By Jack Redlin, UW-Parkside intern

Defensive back Corey Dalton is entering his second season with the Racine Raiders and is coming off a stellar season where he totaled 29 tackles, two interceptions, and two kick return touchdowns while only appearing in eight games.

Before joining the Raiders midseason in 2023, Dalton played for multiple different semi-pro teams. The first team that Dalton played for was the Midway Marauders where he spent three years playing before joining the Illinois Cowboys for three games during the 2023 season.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Dalton considered joining the Raiders but was skeptical about taking the long drive twice a week for practice and games. It only took a little convincing from other Raiders players such as Andre Locke, Sr., and Bibby Davis, also from the Chicagoland area, to finally get Dalton on board.

“A few of the guys currently on the roster that came from Chicago really opened my eyes to play for Racine,” Dalton said. “Then when I got there, Coach Wilbert and the rest of the staff welcomed me with open arms.”

As well as players convincing him to join, Dalton already had hopes of joining the Raiders due to their organization. “I just love the culture and the way it’s run,” said Dalton. “It actually makes you want to play semi-pro; the fans, the gameday environment, the way practices are run.”

Off the field, Dalton is a youth football coach for the Hazel Crest Mustangs. He originally joined the Mustangs for a season in 2018 but rejoined before the 2023 season. Dalton is proud to share his insight on the game and help carve a positive path in life for the youth. A large reason why Dalton coaches is the value he believes it brings to the youth.

“Youth football can teach kids early life lessons,” Dalton stated. “Discipline, confidence, and a winning mentality where no matter what they do in life they always work their hardest to achieve the goal.”

As well as value for the youth, Dalton also believes there is value in coaching youth sports.

“The value of coaching football for me is just watching each kid get better,” says Dalton. “They are all at their different paces on learning the game, but I enjoy watching my players developing. Just to know these young boys look up to me to teach them and make them better motivate me even more to make sure they become the best athlete they can be.”

Dalton’s dedication to success is apparent on-and-off-the-field, from coaching youth football to putting together a stellar season in his first year with the Raiders. Dalton aims to improve not only on-the-field with the Raiders this season but also off-the-field in his time coaching.
