RIVALRY RENEWED!

The St. Paul Pioneers and Racine Raiders aren't strangers. The two teams used to have a robust rivalry, even playing in the North American Football League (NAFL) together. The two teams haven't played since the Pioneers beat the Raiders in the 2009 NAFL playoffs.

The Raiders won the first four meetings between the teams. The first game in 2002 appeared to be a runaway, with Racine up 35-0 midway through the third quarter. St. Paul put up 21 straight points to make it interesting before the Raiders were able to shut the door on a 40-21 win.

In 2004, Racine won 38-14, at home. The two teams first played in Minnesota in 2005, a game the Raiders narrowly pulled out, 17-6. The teams would play another close game at Horlick Field in 2006 with the Raiders coming out on top, 22-13.

St. Paul would pick up their first win in the series in overtime at Horlick Field in 2008. With ten minutes expired in overtime, the Pioneers broke a big run to win the game, 24-18, and send the Raiders to a 3-5 record. The Pioneers would follow that performance up with a drubbing of the Raiders in the NAFL playoffs in 2009, 39-17.

The teams haven't played since that game. The last time the Pioneers visited Racine was the 2008 overtime game.

The Pioneers come into tonight 1-1 on the young 2022 season. They fell on the road to the Newton (Iowa) Nite Hawks, 14-12, on May 7. Newton scored 14 first quarter points and the Pioneers responded with 12 second quarter points.

Last week, the Pioneers took down the Fargo Invaders courtesy of a 21-point second quarter explosion which featured touchdown runs of one, five, and ten yards by three different running backs. The Pioneers defense recorded three interceptions in the game but the offense turned it over just as many times through the air. They held Fargo to 35 yards rushing on 17 rushes and allowed just 7 completion and 124 yards passing.

HONORING WOMEN IN SPORTS AT HALFTIME At halftime, the Racine Raiders will honor the women staff that are part of the Racine Raiders and St. Paul Pioneers as well as players in attendance from the Midwest Mountain Lions.

RAIDER REPORT 3 MAY 21, 2022

FOLLOWING IN FOOTSTEPS

Jacob Zimmerman comes to the Racine Raiders via Horlick High School and Wisconsin Lutheran College (WLC). He was a two-year letterwinner at Horlick and an all-county offensive linemen. At WLC, he played in 29 career games, starting six games, all as a sophomore.

While a rookie with the Raiders this season, Zimmerman has been around semi-pro football much of his life. His father, Rob, played with the Raiders and other teams in the area.

"My father actually played 21 years of semi-pro football so it's something that I grew up doing," says Zimmerman. "I was always at the semi-pro games and just feels right to follow in his footsteps."

The elder Zimmerman wore #58 much of his career and the younger Zimmerman now dons that number for the Raiders.

"It's really special to me to basically be able to follow in my dad's footsteps," says Zimmerman. "It's a way to carry on the legacy that he built in his 21-year career in semi-pro football."

Having a dad that played football that long and playing since his youth means there has to be a strong mom behind-the-scenes and Zimmerman has that with his mom, Jennifer.

"She's picked up a lot over the years watching my dad and she's definitely got some things to say after the game."

Jacob says mom's presence isn't just felt before and after the games either.

"I mean it's hard to ignore her," he says. "You can always hear her yelling up there in the stands during the games."

Zimmerman enjoyed his time playing football at WLC, a private college located in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin.

"I'm glad I chose WLC," says Zimmerman. "Just going out there and being able to grind with guys you knew during your entire four-year career is just something that's hard to find."

Zimmerman says the transition to a new team with new teammates was made easy by his cohorts on the offensive line.

"There's definitely great guys on the Raiders offensive line," Zimmerman says. "They accepted me right away on day one as one of their own and it's been great playing with them so far and I can't wait for the rest of the season."

Zimmerman said his major goal for the season was to be a starter and play and contribute in every game. He also says he has a goal of not giving up any sacks this year.

VOLUNTEER PROFILE

CAROL CLARK & MITZI KANE

Carol Clark has been a Racine Raiders volunteer for 22 years and Mizi Kane joined the team six years ago. They are two women of many that keep the team operating and doing so smoothly.

Carol is the Player Personnel Manager and Mitzi helps Carol and spends a great deal of time helping run concessions for all the events at Historic Horlick Athletic Field. They put in countless hours. Carol also serves as seamstress and helps in concessions. They both help with water on the field on gamedays too.

Carol started volunteering after seeing her husband having "so much fun" on the field. Mitzi's start with the Raiders was more of a chance opportunity where she went from fan to volunteer.

"One day, they started putting up more and more banners so then I couldn't sit in the endzone and look through so I moved down by the gate," she recollects. "Jimmy Hernandez was sitting there and I said, 'Sir, may I pull up a chair next to you so I can watch the game?' Within a couple of months I'm working in the concessions stand."

Carol tries to motivate the players with one of her other talents too.

"I kind of bribe them with 'make a play and I'll bake you something," she laughs.

Carol's favorite moment came at a game in St. Paul.

"We stopped off at a Hardee's and all the guys were wearing little kids bibs," she laughs. "It was hilarious and everybody was laughing at them."

About half of the Raiders staff of volunteers are women. If you're interested in volunteering for the Raiders, please visit our website at https://www.racineraiders.com or fill out the form at https://racineraiders.com/volunteer/.
